English

Capt. William English was a member of the House of Burgesses in 1627/28, for Elizabeth City in 1629, the Lower Parish of Elizabeth in 1632 and in 1632/3-1633.
Journal House of Burgesses, 1619-1658/59, p. IX, X, XIII, XIV

(It seems more than probable that he was the father of the John English of Isle of Wight, who was a Burgess for this County in 1658/59. The loss of the records of Isle of Wight prior to 1660 and of the Elizabeth City records of course no documentary evidence is available, but being an unusual name and in the approximate section, with dates fitting it seems a reasonable conclusion.)

Capt. John English served as a Burgess for Isle of Wight in 1658/59.
Seventeenth Century, Isle of Wight County, by Boddie, pages 102 and 703.

He is listed as Capt. William English (simply because their had been a Capt. William English on an early roll as proven from the following: The Journal of the House of Burgesses gave its reference as Stanard's Colonial Register, Stanard's reference given as Hening's Statutes, vol. I, p. 596-7. In this he is named solely as Capt. English, as Burgess for Isle of Wight.
